Report on the Third Volunteer Health Camp

Ek Ek Paila Foundation | July 2015 | Sailung,
Dolakha

Introduction

- In July 2015, during the challenging monsoon season, Ek Ek Paila undertook its third health camp in Sailung, Dolakha district. Despite difficult travel conditions, a small but dedicated team successfully carried out the program.
- For the first time, the camp was organized as a two-night, three-day long medical service.

Services Provided

- A total of 656 patients received medical care, with 1,047 consultations and treatments performed.
 - Eye checkups: 375
 - Skin diseases: 95
 - ENT (Ear, Nose, Throat): 93
 - General medical consultations: 402
 - Radiology services: 82

Conclusion

- The third camp in Dolakha marked a milestone for Ek Ek Paila by extending its service duration and enhancing the scope of treatment. Despite monsoon hardships, the camp successfully provided medical assistance to 656 patients, highlighting the Foundation's commitment to reaching underserved communities in remote areas.
